ADVISE THE ADVISOR SERIES:

The ABC's of the LGBTQA Community

You are invited to our first UCAN event for Fall 2013! This session has been developed based on expressed interest from our membership to learn more about, how we can best support, and how we communicate with students and staff who identify themselves as part of the Queer or Gay Community. Through learning, our goal is to build understanding, safe and supportive environments and space for our LGBTQ students and staff.

Wednesday, October 16, 2013

Scurfield Hall Room 268

12:05 p.m. – 12:50 p.m.

Presented by:

Nick Moore, B.Sc, B.Ed

Sexual and Gender Minority Youth Education Coordinator
Calgary Sexual Health Centre, ISMSS, Camp fYrefly

And

Dawn Johnston, BA Honours, MA, PhD

Senior Instructor, U of C

Research including gender and sexuality in popular culture

- What is the difference between 'sex' and 'gender'?
- What do all those LGBTQA letters mean? What words do you use or not use?
- What documents does U of C require to change names/gender on official records?
- What is U of C doing to provide support services and safe spaces for the Q community?
